Pension for service wholly within group.

9. (1) Where the other public service of an officer to whom this Part applies has been wholly under one or more scheduled governments and his aggregate service would have qualified him had it been wholly in the service of the Government for a pension under the Act, he may, on his retirement from the public service in circumstances in which he is permitted by the law or regulations of the service in which he is last employed to retire on pension or gratuity, be granted in respect of his service under the Government a pension of such an amount as bears the same proportion to the amount of pension for which he would have been eligible had his service been wholly under the Government, as the aggregate amounts of his pensionable emoluments during his service under the Government bears to the aggregate amounts of his pensionable emoluments throughout his service in the group, but no pension commencing after 1st July, 1977, shall be less than sixty pounds per annum.

(2) In determining for the purposes of this regulation the pension for which an officer would have been eligible if his service had been wholly under the Government—

- (ii) where any service in a civil capacity otherwise than in a pensionable office is taken into account as pensionable service, the officer's aggregate pensionable emoluments during that service shall be taken into account to the same extent as that service is taken into account as pensionable service.

10. (1) Where the other public service of an officer to whom this Part applies has not included service under any of the scheduled governments, and his aggregate service would have qualified him, had it been wholly in the service of the Government, for a pension under these Regulations, he may, on his retirement from the public service in circumstances in which he is permitted by the law or regulations of the service in which he is last employed to retire on a pension, or gratuity, be granted in respect of his service under the Government a pension at the annual rate of one four hundred-eightieth of his pensionable emoluments for each complete month of his pensionable service in the service of the Government, but no pension commencing after the 1st July, 1977, shall be less than sixty pounds per annum.

(2) Where the officer is not in the service of the Government at the time of his retirement in the circumstances referred to in paragraph (1), his pensionable emoluments for the purposes of that paragraph shall be those which would have been taken for the purpose of computing his pension if he had retired from the public service and been granted a pension at the date of his last transfer from the service of the Government.

Pension where other service partly within and partly not within group.

11. Where a part only of the other public service of an officer to whom this Part applies has been under one or more of the scheduled governments, regulation 9 shall apply; but, in calculating the amount of pension, regard shall be had only to service in the group.

Gratuities where length of service does not qualify for pension.

12. Where an officer to whom this Part applies retires from the public service in circumstances in which he is permitted by the law or regulations of the service in which he is last employed to retire on pension or gratuity, but has not been in the public service in a civil capacity for ten years, he may be granted in respect of his service under the Government a gratuity not exceeding five times the annual amount of the pension which, if there had been no qualifying period might have been granted to him under regulation 9, 10 or 11, as the case may be:

Provided that—

- (i) where the officer retires or is deemed to have retired from the service of the Government of Zambia, Uganda or Tanzania or from service under the Community, the East African Community, the East African Railways Corporation, the East African Harbours Corporation or the East African Posts and Telecommunications Corporation under any written law which permits him to receive a pension thereunder, he may be granted, in respect of his service under the Government of Kenya and in lieu of any gratuity under the provisions of this regulation, a pension calculated in accordance with regulation 9 or 11 notwithstanding that he has not completed in the aggregate the minimum period of qualifying service;
- (ii) where an officer, having been a contributor to the fund, established under the Nairobi Municipality (Superannuation Fund) Rules, 1950 (now revoked), retires from employment with, or has his services terminated by, the City Council of Nairobi under the Kenya Local Authorities Superannuation Fund Rules, 1963, and the officer is under those Rules permitted to receive a pension, he may be granted, in respect of his services under the Government and in lieu of any gratuity under the provisions of this regulation, a pension calculated in accordance with regulation 9 or 11 notwithstanding that he has not completed in the aggregate the minimum period of qualifying service.

In relation to an officer who retires in the circumstances mentioned either in the proviso to paragraph (b) of section 6, or in paragraph (ii) of the proviso to section 6, of the Act, regulations 9, 10 and 12 shall have effect as if there were substituted for the words “he is permitted by the law or regulations of the service in which he is last employed to retire on pension or gratuity”, wherever they appear therein, the words “he would be eligible for a pension, gratuity or other allowance, under this Act”.

Construction with regard to special categories of retirement.

14. A female officer to whom this Part applies who resigns from public service on or with a view to marriage, or is required to retire from public service on account of her marriage, and in consequence—

Marriage gratuities.

- (a) would, if the whole of her public service had been under the Government, have been eligible for a gratuity under regulation 6; and
- (b) if she is, at the date of her resignation or retirement in other public service, eligible for a gratuity under provisions corresponding to that regulation in the law or regulations of the public service in which she is last employed,

Provided that—

- (i) for the purpose of computing an officer’s total public service under this regulation, no regard shall be had to any service other than service within the group or to any service under a government which does not grant a gratuity to her in consequence of her resignation or retirement;
- (ii) in computing the gratuity only service under a scheduled government shall be taken into account;
- (iii) any gratuity so granted shall be computed in accordance with regulation 6.

Provided that—

- (i) any break in service caused by temporary suspension of employment not arising from misconduct or voluntary resignation; and
- (ii) in the case of an African subordinate police officer or an African subordinate prison officer, any break in service between discharge and re-enlistment which has been disregarded for the purpose of the grant of a gratuity in accordance with subsection (4) of section 20 of the Police Ordinance, 1930 (now repealed), or paragraph (3) of rule 5 of the Prisons Rules, 1930 (now revoked), respectively, 64 of 1930.

 - (c) who, being a female officer, has retired from the public service without pension on or with a view to marriage and has subsequently been re-employed in the public service; or
 - (d) who has left pensionable service under the Teachers (Superannuation) Act, 1925 of the United Kingdom or any Act amending or replacing that Act, or under the Oversea Superannuation Scheme, or under any enactment approved by the President for the purpose of this regulation, with a view to entering public service not being service pensionable under such Act, scheme or enactment, and has, not later than three months, or such extended period as the President may in any particular case approve, after leaving the first-mentioned service, received any salary in respect of employment in public service not so pensionable,

15 & 16 Geo. 5,
c. 59.

may, if the President thinks fit, be granted the pension or gratuity for which he would have been eligible if any break in his public service immediately before the suspension, re-employment or employment had not occurred, the pension to be in lieu of—

- (i) any pension previously granted to him from the funds of Kenya; and
- (ii) any gratuity so granted which is required to be refunded as a condition of the application to the officer of this regulation, but additional to any gratuity so granted which is not required to be so refunded.

18 and 19. (Deleted by 49 of 1968, s. 4.)

Emoluments to be taken for computing pension or gratuity.

20. (1) For the purpose of computing the amount of the pension or gratuity of an officer who has had a period of not less than three years' pensionable service before his retirement—

- (a) in the case of an officer who has held the same office for a period of three years immediately preceding the date of his retirement, the full annual pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him at that date in respect of that office shall be taken;
- (b) in the case of an officer who at any time during the period of three years has been transferred from one office to another, but whose pensionable emoluments have not been changed by reason of the transfer or transfers, otherwise than by the grant of any scale increment, the full annual pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him at the date of his retirement in respect of the office then held by him shall be taken;
- (c) in other cases, one-third of the aggregate pensionable emoluments enjoyed by the officer in respect of his service during the three years of his service immediately preceding the date of his retirement shall be taken:

Provided that—

- (i) if one-third is less than the highest annual pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him at the date of any transfer within the period of three years, those annual pensionable emoluments shall, subject to paragraph (iii) of this proviso, be taken;
- (ii) if one-third is less than the annual pensionable emoluments which would have been enjoyed by him at the date of his retirement if he had continued to hold any office from which he has been transferred at any time during the period of three years and had received all scale increments which, in the opinion of the President, would have been granted to him, the annual pensionable emoluments which would have been so enjoyed shall, subject to paragraph (iii) of this proviso, be taken; and

- (iii) unless the President otherwise directs, in no circumstances shall the emoluments to be taken exceed the full annual pensionable emoluments enjoyed by the officer at the date of his retirement in respect of the office then held by him.

(2) For the purpose of determining under paragraph (1) the pensionable emoluments that an officer has enjoyed or would have enjoyed, as the case may be, he shall be deemed—

- (a) to have been on duty on full pensionable emoluments throughout the period of three years immediately preceding the date of his retirement; and
- (b) to have enjoyed the benefit of any increase due to a general revision in the pensionable emoluments of any office held by him as if the increase had been payable throughout the period of three years:

Provided that if he has been transferred from an office which has been abolished, and for this reason the pensionable emoluments of that office have not been considered in a general revision of pensionable emoluments, then, for the purposes of this regulation, the pensionable emoluments attached to the abolished office shall be equated with those of such office or offices as are certified by the President in his discretion as having enjoyed the same pensionable emoluments as the abolished office at the time of revision.

(3) For the purpose of computing the amount of the pension or gratuity of an officer who has had a period of less than three years' pensionable service before his retirement—

- (a) the average annual pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him during the period shall be taken;
- (b) he shall be deemed to have been on duty on full pensionable emoluments throughout the period; and
- (c) he shall be deemed to have enjoyed the benefit of any increase due to a general revision in the pensionable emoluments of any office held by him as if the increase had been payable throughout the period.

4 of 1999, s. 60.

20A. The pension payable where the same is deferred under section 10A shall be the projected pensionable emoluments from the date of retirement from the public service until the officer attains the age of fifty years, increased by the higher of—

- (a) three per cent compounded per full year from the date of retirement to the date of attaining the age of 50 years; and
- (b) the increase in pensionable emoluments the officer would have earned, if the officer had remained in the service through scale increments and any increases in the salary scales that would have arisen over the period from the date of retirement to the date of attaining the age of fifty years, as the Director of Pensions may determine.

Service otherwise than in a pensionable office.

21. (1) Only service in a pensionable office shall be taken into account as pensionable service:

Provided that—

- (i) service in a pensionable office otherwise than on probation or in a substantive capacity shall count only as to one-half of the service or such greater proportion or the whole thereof as the President may determine;
- (ii) where a period of continuous service in a civil capacity otherwise than in a pensionable office is immediately followed by service in a pensionable office and the officer is confirmed therein, one-half of that period, or such greater portion or the whole thereof as the President may determine, may be taken into account;
- (iii) any break in service which may be disregarded under regulation 16 may likewise be disregarded in determining for the purposes of paragraph (ii) of this proviso whether one period of service immediately follows another period of service;
- (iv) where an officer has been transferred from a pensionable office in which he has been confirmed to an office other than a pensionable office and subsequently retires either from a pensionable office or from that other office, his service in the other office may, with the approval of the President, be taken into account as though it were service in the pensionable office which he held immediately before the transfer, and at the pensionable emoluments which were payable to him at the date of transfer;

(v) where a period of service in a non-pensionable office is taken into account under this regulation, the officer shall, during that period, be deemed for the purposes of regulations 6, 24 and 25 to be holding a pensionable office and, where that period is taken into account under paragraph (iv) of this proviso, to have been confirmed therein;

(vi) where an officer who is a contributor to the provident fund established under the Provident Fund Act is without break of service appointed to a pensionable office and confirmed in that office, he shall, on surrendering all claim to any refund of contributions made in respect of any period between his attaining the age of eighteen years or, where it would be to his advantage, the age of twenty years and the date of his confirmation in the pensionable office, be deemed for the purposes of the Act and these Regulations to have been serving in a pensionable office during that period;

Cap. 191.

(vii) where an officer has been granted a gratuity under any contract, or where a female officer has been granted a marriage gratuity under regulation 6 or regulation 14, and such gratuity—

(a) has been refunded, the period of service in respect of which the gratuity was granted may be taken into account as to one-half of the service or such greater proportion or the whole thereof as the President may determine;

(b) has not been refunded, the period of service in respect of which the gratuity was granted shall not be taken into account as pensionable service.

(2) Any officer who was remunerated under any of the enhanced contract scales introduced in 1955 or thereafter and abolished by Establishment Circular No. 51 of the 6th December, 1958 may at his option (such option to be exercised within three months from the date upon which the officer is admitted to the permanent and pensionable establishment or from the 4th September, 1962, whichever date is the later, or on such other later day as the President may in any particular case approve) repay to the Government a sum equal to the difference between the remuneration he actually received under the enhanced contract scale and the remuneration he would have received under the corresponding scale relating to the permanent and pensionable establishment.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in paragraph (1), no service in respect of which an officer was remunerated under any enhanced temporary scale (set out in Establishment Circular No. 4 of the 28th January, 1955 or in any subsequent circular and abolished by Establishment Circular No. 51 of the 6th December, 1958) shall be taken into account for the purpose of calculating any pension under the Act unless the officer has repaid to the Government the sum provided for in paragraph (4).

(4) Any officer remunerated under any enhanced temporary scale referred to in paragraph (3) may at his option (such option to be exercised within three months from the date upon which the officer is admitted to the permanent and pensionable establishment or from the 4th September, 1962, whichever date is the later, or on such other later day as the President may in any particular case approve) repay to the Government a sum equal to the difference between the remuneration he actually received under the enhanced temporary scale, and the remuneration he would have received under the corresponding scale relating to the permanent and pensionable establishment.

Acting service.

22. Any period during which an officer has performed only acting service in an office may be taken into account as pensionable service (subject, if the office is a non-pensionable office, to regulation 21 (1) if the period of such acting service—

- (a) is not taken into account as part of his pensionable service in other public service; and
- (b) is immediately preceded or followed by service in a substantive capacity in a pensionable office under the same government or authority, and not otherwise.

Service under age of twenty or on probation or agreement.

23. Save as otherwise provided in these Regulations, there shall not be taken into account as pensionable service—

- (a) any period of service while the officer was under the age of eighteen years or, where it would be to his advantage, twenty years; or
- (b) any period of service while he was on probation or agreement, unless without break of service he is confirmed in a pensionable office in the public service:

Provided that any break of service which may be disregarded under the provisions of regulation 16 may likewise be disregarded in determining whether the officer is confirmed in a pensionable office without break of service.

Part V □ Supplementary

24. If before the 1st July 1999 an officer holding a pensionable office retires from the public service in consequence of the abolition of his office or for the purpose of facilitating improvement in the organization of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency or economy may be effected, he may—

Abolition of office and re-organization. 4 of 1999, s. 61.

- (a) if he has been in the public service for less than ten years, be granted in lieu of any gratuity under regulation 5 or 12, a pension under regulation 4, 9, 10 or 11, as the case may be, as if the words “for ten years or more” were omitted from regulation 4;
- (b) if he retires from the service of the Government, be granted an additional pension at the annual rate of one-sixtieth of his pensionable emoluments for each complete period of three years’ pensionable service:

Provided that—

- (i) the addition shall not exceed ten-sixtieths; and
- (ii) the addition together with the remainder of the officer’s pension shall not exceed the pension for which he would have been eligible if he had continued until the age of fifty-five years to hold the office held by him at the date of his retirement, having received all increments for which he would have been eligible by that date.

25. (1) If an officer holding a pensionable office in which he has been confirmed is permanently injured—

Officers retiring on account of injuries.

- (b) without his own default; and
- (c) on account of circumstances specifically attributable to the nature of his duty,

he may—

- (i) if his retirement is thereby necessitated or materially accelerated and he has been in the public service for less than ten years, be granted, in lieu of any gratuity under regulation 5 or 12, a pension under regulation 4, 9, 10 or 11, as the case may be, as if the words “for ten years or more” were omitted from regulation 4;
- (ii) if so injured while in the service of the Government, be granted on retirement an additional pension at the annual rate of the proportion of his actual pensionable emoluments at the date of his injury appropriate to his case as follows—

when his capacity to contribute to his own support is—

slightly impaired	five—sixtieths
impaired	ten—sixtieths
materially impaired	...	fifteen—sixtieths
totally destroyed	twenty—sixtieths:

Provided that the amount of the additional pension may be reduced to such an extent as the President thinks reasonable where the injury is not the cause or the sole cause of retirement.

(2) An officer holding a pensionable office in which he has not been confirmed, or holding a non-pensionable office, and so injured while in the service of the Government may be granted on retirement a pension of the same amount as the additional pension which might be granted to him under paragraph (1) if his office were a pensionable office and he had been confirmed therein; and the provisions of regulation 27 shall not apply to a pension granted under this paragraph.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation—

- (a) an officer who is permanently injured as a result of injuries received while travelling by air in pursuance of official instructions shall be deemed to have been permanently injured—
 - (i) in the actual discharge of his duty; and
 - (ii) on account of circumstances specifically attributable to the nature of his duty;

(b) an officer proceeding by a route approved by the President to or from Kenya at the commencement or termination of his service therein, or of a period of secondment, duty or leave therefrom, who is permanently injured as a result of damage to the vessel, aircraft or vehicle in which he is travelling, or of any act of violence directed against the vessel, aircraft or vehicle, shall, if the President is satisfied that the damage or act is attributable to circumstances arising out of any war in which the Republic may be engaged, be deemed to have been permanently injured—

(a) in the actual discharge of his duty; and

(b) without his own default; and

(c) on account of circumstances specifically attributable to the nature of his duty.

(4) In the case of an officer not holding a pensionable office, “pensionable emoluments” in this regulation means the emoluments enjoyed by him which would have been pensionable emoluments if the office held by him had been a pensionable office.

(5) Neither subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (1) nor paragraph (2) shall apply in the case of an officer who in consequence of his injury is entitled—

(a) to compensation under any written law relating to workmen’s compensation or to compensation under any such law where no pension is paid under this regulation; or

(2) Where the officer is a depositor under the Provident Fund Act, the amount of any gratuity and the capital value of any pension granted to him under paragraph (1) shall be deemed to be a sum due to the Government for the purposes of section 18 of that Act.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation, "pay" includes the value of free quarters and any allowance which the President may think fit to include.

27. Any officer to whom a pension is granted under the Act may, at his option exercisable not later than the day immediately preceding the date of his retirement from the public service, or at such later date as the President may in any special case approve, be paid in lieu of that pension a pension at the rate of three-fourths or any greater fraction of that pension together with a gratuity equal to twenty times the amount of the reduction so made in the pension:

Provided that, in the application of this regulation to cases where the limitation prescribed by section 10 (2) operates, the words "that pension" shall mean the amount of pension which the officer would have drawn from the funds of Kenya if he had not exercised his option under this regulation.

28. (1) An officer, other than an officer who has been confirmed in his office, who is not in receipt of any pension and who is not otherwise eligible for any pension (other than a pension under paragraph 2 of regulation 25), gratuity (other than a gratuity under any contract) or other allowance from the funds of Kenya may, if he has been in the public service—

Provided that—

- (i) no period of service in respect of which any gratuity has been paid or is payable under any contract, or which was remunerated under any of the enhanced temporary scales referred to in paragraph (3) of regulation 21, shall be taken into account for the purpose of computing any gratuity under this paragraph, except where the officer remunerated under any of the enhanced temporary scales has repaid to the Government the sum provided for in paragraph (4) of regulation 21;
- (ii) where any temporary service is followed by service under a contract providing for payment of a gratuity, the compassionate gratuity shall be as assessed on a month's pay at the end of the temporary service;

calculated on his last pay in respect of that service and shall be the amount which bears to the gratuity for which he would be eligible if the whole of that service had been service under the Government, the proportion which his service under the Government bears to the total of that service.

(2) For the purpose of computing an officer's gratuity under paragraph (v) of the proviso to paragraph (1), no regard shall be had to any service under a government which does not grant a gratuity to him in consequence of his retirement from the public service.

(3) An officer who has been granted a gratuity under paragraph (1), who has been in the public service for not less than thirty years and whose salary on retirement is not more than the maximum salary payable for the time being to officers serving in Job Group B, or such other amount as the President may declare for the purposes of this paragraph, may, in addition to that gratuity, be granted an annual allowance of one thousand two hundred shillings, or, if he has had other public service, an annual allowance as bears the same proportion to an annual allowance of one thousand two hundred shillings as his service under the Government bears to his total public service.

(4) Where an officer, other than an officer who has been confirmed in his office, having not less than seven years' public service dies while in the service of the Government and his dependants are not otherwise eligible for any gratuity under the Act or these Regulations, the President may grant to the dependants of that officer or to such persons as the President shall name, a gratuity of an amount not exceeding the amount which might have been granted to the officer under paragraph (1) (a) had he retired in the circumstances set out therein at the date of his death.

(c) an officer who, having held a non-pensionable office, is serving on probation in a pensionable office shall be deemed to hold a non-pensionable office, and his pay shall be deemed to be the pensionable emoluments of the pensionable office or the pay last received by him in respect of his service in a non-pensionable office, whichever is the greater.

(6) This regulation shall not apply to—

Application of Part II of the Schedule.

3. The provisions of this Part shall apply only in the case of an officer who—

- (a) if he was appointed to the public service before the 1st January, 1930, and his public service has been wholly under one or more of the scheduled governments, and immediately before his appointment to the service of the Government he was eligible to have his pension calculated in accordance with a provision corresponding to that set out in this subparagraph, regulation 9 of the regulations shall have effect as if a third proviso were added at the end of paragraph (3) thereof as follows—

“(iii) where it would be to the advantage of the officer, his pension in respect of his service under the Government may be calculated as if any scheduled government in which he has served were not a scheduled government.”;

- (b) if he retired before 1st January, 1949, and for the purpose of computing his pension his case falls within subparagraph (c) of paragraph (1) of regulation 20 of the regulations, then regulation 9 of the regulations shall have effect as if there were added to subparagraph (a) of paragraph (2) thereof the following proviso—

“Provided that, where his pensionable emoluments are determined by reference to the pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him during the three years preceding the date of retirement from public service, then for the purpose of such determination the pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him in any former office shall be deemed to have been the pensionable emoluments of that office which he would have enjoyed had his service in that office been after the 1st January, 1946” ;

- (c) if under any of the enactments specified in paragraph 1 of the Third Schedule to the Act he was eligible on retirement, in circumstances in which he might be granted a pension or gratuity, to have such pension or gratuity in respect of an earlier period of service under the Government calculated at the annual rate of one four-hundred-and eightieth of his pensionable emoluments for each complete month of pensionable service, regulation 9 of the regulations shall have effect as if there were inserted at the end of paragraph (2) thereof the following subparagraph—

“(e) in the application of regulation 4, his pension shall be computed separately—

- (i) in respect of pensionable service before the date on which he ceased to be eligible to have his pension or gratuity calculated at the annual rate of one four-hundred-and-eightieth of his pensionable emoluments for each complete month of pensionable service at the aforementioned rate; and
- (ii) in respect of pensionable service on and after that date at the annual rate of one six-hundredth of his pensionable emoluments for each complete month of pensionable service,

An officer to whom this Part applies and who before the 3rd September, 1948 was subject to the provisions of any of the enactments specified in paragraphs 1 to 12 of the Third Schedule to the Act shall be subject to the provisions of the Act and of the regulations, save that in the application of those provisions to any such officer—

- (a) if the officer under any such enactment was eligible, on retirement in circumstances in which he might be granted a pension or gratuity, to have that pension or gratuity calculated in respect of his public service immediately before the 1st January, 1946 (and for the purpose of this paragraph regulation 2 of the European Officers' Pensions Regulations (now revoked) shall have effect as if for the words "service subsequent to that date and not otherwise" there were substituted the words "service subsequent to the 1st January, 1946 and not otherwise"), at the annual rate of one four-hundred-and-eightieth of his pensionable emoluments for each complete month of pensionable service, then—
